

Notice of New Rules
January 1st 2014

To All Whiskey Creek Condo Members and families,

The board was made aware of the potential health risk associated with pets and smoke inside our buildings relative to persons with allergies to pets and or smoke. For the protection of our membership, the board made the condo building smoke free and pet free effective January 1st 2012. Violation of these rules carry a $25 fee assessed to the unit of the violating member, family member or guest. For these same reason the board has made the following rule changes effective January 1st 2014;

By the authority of the Whiskey Creek Condo Association the Bath House is declared to be smoke free. No Smoking is allowed inside the bath house.

By the authority of the Whiskey Creek Condo Association the Bath House is declared to be pet free. No pets are allowed inside the bath house.

Violation of these rules carry a $25 fee assessed to the unit of the violating member, family member or guest.

Respectfully submitted to you by,
